

Church Music Leader

Lincoln Street United Methodist Church (www.lincolnstreet.org) in Southeast Portland is seeking a Music Leader for its Sunday morning worship services.

The congregation is a small, progressive gathering which is seeking someone with alternative musical interests and abilities (world music, gospel, blues, etc.). We are thinking outside the church musician box. Piano skills necessary, other instruments and vocal skills are desired.

Lincoln Street does not have a formal choir, nor does it seek to establish one. However, we have many gifted singers who would like to contribute their talents in worship from time to time, either in solos or chamber groups. There are several strong instrumentalists in the congregation as well.

In addition to leading hymns and worship music, the Music Leader will organize and coordinate this musical leadership, recruiting instrumentalists and singers to help lead in services.

Music selections will be made in coordination with the co-pastors.

This position is for two Sundays each month, which includes preparation and congregational recruitment.

Pay is $150 for each Sunday.

If interested, please send resume, including references, to Elizabeth, lincolnstreet@gmail.com.

Applications accepted until position is filled.
